Mississauga firefighters were called out last night to battle a two-alarm fire in Clarkson. The blaze broke out at about 5:30 p.m. in the basement of a semi-detached house at 2619 Constable Rd. The occupants of the home managed to escape and were waiting outside when firefighters and emergency service personnel arrived. One firefighter suffered a cut to the hand and was treated on-scene. No one else was injured. The cause of the fire remains under investigation.
