Man dies in Oakville fire

One man is dead after fire ripped through an Oakville home early this morning.

Six trucks of Oakville firefighters responded to a call from a neighbour who reported a fire with smoke coming out of several windows on the main floor of a two-storey brick home at 223 Rebecca St., near Dorval Dr. and Lakeshore Rd. W. The caller said there was still someone inside the building.

Firefighters rescued a man from the building and had the fire knocked down by 5:29 a.m.

The man was taken to Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital, where he died of his injuries.

Fire and police officials remain at the scene. The Ontario Fire Marshal will conduct an investigation.

Fire officials say the home was not equipped with a sprinkler system that could have doused the fire in its early stages.
